FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

27 February 2012

UPDATE ON THE INTERIM DISTRIBUTION OF CUSTOMERS' SEGREGATED AND PROPRIETARY FUNDS

Further to the press release of 8 February 2012 and following upon sanction by the Court on 8 February 2012 of the interim distribution of up to US$350 million of customers' proprietary funds, the Provisional Liquidators are pleased to announce that they have, today, commenced payment to "Cash Only" customers of the Company who have been identified as being entitled to such interim distribution, i.e. customers with no open positions as at 31 October 2011. The payment to other entitled customers of the Company will commence from mid March 2012.

The Provisional Liquidators will continue to work towards completing the verification and reconciliation exercise of customers' accounts and the books and records of the Company, as well as collecting the remaining customers' segregated and proprietary funds held by the Company's overseas counterparties, clearing members and financial institutions. The Provisional Liquidators will update customers as to the progress in this regard at the appropriate stage.
